Kids read mean tweets:

Video reflection:

Why was there a different feel between the two videos?

Why is it funny when celebrities (or the president) are on the receiving end?

Should either of these videos be laughed at?

What is cyberbullying?

Cyberbullying: Use of technology (cell phones, instant messaging, chat rooms, or social networking sites) to intimidate, threaten or harass another person.

Some statistics:

About half of young people have experienced some form of cyberbullying.

Between 10 and 20 percent experience cyber bullying regularly.

More than half of young people surveyed say that they never confide in their parents when cyber bullying happens to them.

Victims of cyber bullying are more likely to suffer from low self-esteem and to consider suicide as a result.

The consequences for cyberbullying are:

The victim may feel embarrassed, humiliated, or ostracized, and may seek revenge.

The perpetrator may face school and legal sanctions.

How can you prevent cyberbullying?

Don't pass on hurtful text or instant messages

Before you send or pass on a message, ask yourself these three questions:

Is it true?

Is it kind?

Is it necessary?

Protect yourself!

Don't take photos of others without their permission

Don't allow others to take your photo with their cell phone

Keep your photos "PG"

Log out of online accounts and protect your passwords

Set up privacy controls

Google yourself!

RAISE AWARENESS

Create a "Tweet" or an "Instagram Post" about cyberbullying to be posted in our classroom!

Some suggestions:

Make it pretty

Make it appropriate

Use information from your notes

Make it your own
